

ISSUE #4 | 22 NOV 2023

INTRODUCTION

Hey there,

As we approach the final stretch of term 1, we're thrilled to present our second-to-last newsletter of the term! If you joined us for our recent social at the Neighbourhood, we hope you had a fantastic time, and for the rest, don't worry—more social events are in the pipeline.

Looking forward, we're delighted to announce two upcoming events: a Mock Interview Series in collaboration with WWCS and a Speaker Session with Warwick Entrepreneurs Society. Stay tuned for details; these are not to be missed!

But that's not all—brace yourselves for the challenge of our upcoming crossword! It's the perfect mental workout, and a fun opportunity to collect points to win a coveted pair of tickets for our flagship event in February.

Get ready for a newsletter packed with updates, events, and a dash of excitement. Happy reading!

Best regards,

Anam Saleem, Bharath Waaj & Preeti Singh
Marketing Team
Warwick Congress

NEWS OF THE WEEK

Source: REUTERS

UK Cabinet Reshuffle Unveils Dramatic Changes and Challenges for Sunak's Leadership

The power to shape the government lies firmly in the hands of the Prime Minister, and Rishi Sunak has seized this opportunity to rearrange his ministers, a move expected to be the final major change in the Conservative front bench before the upcoming general election in 2024. This reshuffle is Sunak's chance to imprint his authority on a ministerial team he partially inherited from his predecessors, Boris Johnson and Liz Truss, and create a cohesive unit aligned with his own political vision.

The reshuffle was triggered, in part, by increasing criticism of Home Secretary Suella Braverman. Accused of stirring "hatred and division," Braverman faced backlash after making controversial comments about the police's handling of a pro-Palestinian march. Downing Street clarified that they had not approved her article, leading to a public outcry. Braverman's position became untenable, and Rishi Sunak appointed James Cleverly as her successor. Cleverly, known for his diplomatic skills and pragmatic approach, is expected to bring a fresh perspective to the Home Office.

One of the most surprising outcomes post-Braverman's dismissal was the reentry of former Prime Minister David Cameron into politics, now serving as the Foreign Secretary. Cameron's return invites scrutiny, notably due to the Greensill scandal, where he faced criticism for lobbying the British government on behalf of finance firm Greensill Capital, while being employed as a paid advisor. The implications of Cameron's appointment, particularly regarding his earlier advocacy for a "golden era" in relations with Beijing, also raises concerns among Tory MPs who have faced Chinese sanctions.

As the reshuffle continues, questions arise about the impact on public confidence in Sunak's leadership. While reshuffles historically have a negligible effect on voters, Sunak's move has generated significant attention and triggered internal strife within the Conservative Party. With a widening deficit to Labour in the polls, Sunak faces challenges to maintain stability and unity within his party. Reports also suggest that several Tories are considering submitting letters of no confidence in Rishi, adding another layer of complexity to the aftermath of the cabinet reshuffle. The impact of the reshuffle on public perception and party unity remains to be seen, making the upcoming general election a crucial test for the Conservative government under Sunak's leadership.

UPCOMING EVENTS | FROM OUR SPONSORS

UPCOMING EVENTS

1

Mock Interview Series With WWCS

Are you ready to ace those interviews?
Join us for an exclusive interview prep
session in partnership with WWCS!

 Date: Monday 27th November

 Time: 1:00 - 8:00 PM

 Location: Rootes Learning Grid

Practice Technical and Behavioural Interviews with esteemed Exec in the fields of Banking, Consulting, Marketing and Law. Open to all years!

 Click here to sign up!

2

Warwick Entrepreneurs
CREATE, INNOVATE, DISRUPT

Speaker Session In Collaboration With Warwick Entrepreneurs

Ever wondered how to pitch a business idea?
Join us with Admire Mudangwe and Jessica Rasmussen as they share their experiences within the venture capital and entrepreneurship space.

 Date: Thursday 30th November

 Time: 5:00 - 6:00 PM

 Location: OC0.02

 Stay tuned for further information - coming soon on Instagram!

FROM OUR SPONSORS

AlphaSights – In-person networking event and office visit!

AlphaSights has been at the forefront of the knowledge on-demand industry since 2008, bridging the gap between investors, business leaders, and the insights required for success. With a global presence spanning nine cities, their 1,500+ colleagues provide round-the-clock support to the world's top investment funds, consultancies, and businesses.

The Client Service team operates at the commercial frontline, helping top-tiered clients leverage expert knowledge to make better business decisions. A fast-paced, impactful and rewarding experience, they work quickly to understand their clients' exact knowledge needs, and then find, engage, and vet the experts most suited to each situation.

We are planning to host an in-person networking event and office visit for Term 2. It would be a fantastic opportunity to meet the experts and explore the different roles available.

 To register your interest in this event click here

QUIZ

Instructions

Please send in your answers to congress.warwick@gmail.com by 11:59 pm Sunday 26th November.

Subject your mail as: Newsletter Quiz Issue #[Number].

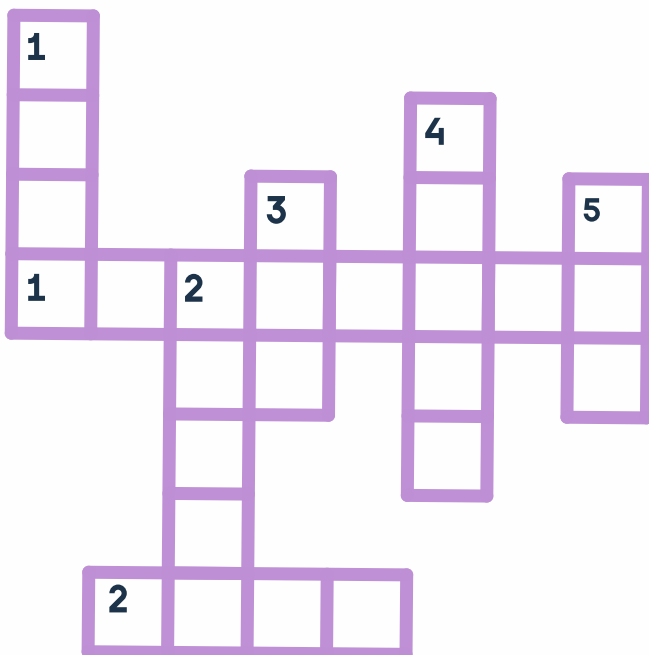

Failure to do so will invalidate your participation.

Winners announced in February*

Highest scorers of the series will win a pair of tickets to our highly anticipated flagship conference in February.

Politics Crossword!

Try your hand at our politics themed crossword puzzle! (Please provide your answer in list form, distinguishing answers for Across & Down)

Across:

1. Government where the head of state is elected
2. The power to reject or block a decision or law

Down:

1. One who deceives with false statements
2. A state of non-conflict and stability achieved through diplomacy and cooperation
3. Abbreviation of a situation in which a nation is subjected to a blockade
4. Surveys measuring public opinion on political issues or candidate preferences
5. An intergovernmental organisation that prosecutes individuals for international crimes

Answers for Issue #3 Quiz

Mens rea- the culpable mental states that must accompany criminal acts, e.g. intention and recklessness

Constitution- a special form of law that establishes the structures of government; sets out the powers the government can exercise; defines the relationship between the individual and the state.

Vicarious liability- a rule of law that imposes strict liability on employers for the wrongdoings of their employees.

Ober dicta- a passage in a judicial opinion which is not necessary for the decision of the case before the court

WARWICK CONGRESS

CONTACT US:

CONGRESS.WARWICK@GMAIL.COM

SIA.JAIN@WARWICK.AC.UK
CO-PRESIDENT

AANYA.CHOWBEY@WARWICK.AC.UK
CO-PRESIDENT

@WARWICKCONGRESS

OUR WEBSITE

OUR HUZLE PAGE

Our Sponsors

LAZARD

AlphaSights
Knowledge on Demand

WRIGHT | HASSALL

Our Partners

Stonegate Group

City Career Series
Preparing you for your City career